

3 Keys to “Right Sizing” Your Next Move

Tailored towards the 50 plus population, empty nesters and retirees.

Are you in the 50 plus population? Then the “3 Keys to ‘Right-Sizing’ Your Next Move” program is something you need to know about!

Why do you need a Real Estate Education Program and what is “3 KEYS TO ‘RIGHT-SIZING’ YOUR NEXT MOVE”?

Many people in the 50 plus population find themselves in transition with their living space and are unprepared for knowing how to deal with it. Transition can result from divorce, death of a partner, or children that have grown up and moved out or are moving back in. It can also occur when adult children are searching for a better-suited living situation for an elder parent. “The 3 Keys to Right-Sizing Your Next Move” provides my clients an opportunity to be more prepared to make their next real estate move by becoming more equipped emotionally and intellectually. Attendees learn to navigate the 3 Keys: HEART, HEAD, and HOME.

This “3 Keys Program” is also perfect for attorneys, accountant, financial planners, and healthcare advocates who work with the 50 plus population. This program is a great keynote that I can come to your location and deliver for your clients.

The benefits of hosting a “3 Keys to ‘Right-Sizing’ Your Next Move”
