

Success Leaves Clues.... Jason's Client Reviews

Jason is not like a typical salesperson

Jason was referred to me by a close friend of mine when he I told him I was looking to sell and move. I could not thank my friend enough for his referral. Jason went above and beyond throughout the entire process. Jason helped us sell two homes and buy our forever home. He was always just a phone call away, and never ever left us in the dark about anything throughout the entire process. He consistently touching base with us daily. He always had our best interests at heart. He will fight tooth and nail to make sure as a buyer/seller that we were comfortable and happy with the results. After the process my wife and I can easily said we have made another friend in Jason. He doesn't just look at his clients as people he is working for, he sees them as friends. I highly recommend calling Jason Bruno whether you are just thinking about buying or selling, or ready to buy and or sell. He isn't just your ordinary run of the mill-dime a dozen agent. He will truly go above and beyond for all of his clients! - M. Nobrega

Jason is different from most agents. He always had my interest at heart. He listened to my needs and gently, but honestly informed me about things I needed to do to get my house sold . Jason is wonderful and I highly recommend him. - D. Velon

We met 12 years ago when you found us our first house. I can't imagine using someone else, as you know I trust you and I don't trust many people. Many recommendations to come! - C. Cox

I needed someone experienced to guide me through this process. I never felt Jason was a salesman looking for a commission like some Realtors. He was always in communication and proceeded with my best interest in mind. I truly felt like he was a partner in the whole process. - L. Brady

Jason is a very personable, kind, honest and smart businessman that had a sweet side, but serious side too. I really trust him and not many people can say that about their Realtor. - J. Crandall

Jason doesn't make a promise he can't keep. Not only is he on top of every move, but he kept me informed as well. We communicated frequently and efficiently by email most of the time, by phone when necessary. Didn't consume my time unnecessarily. Very knowledgeable, great advice. Thanks for all your help, couldn't have done it without you! - M. Lauzon

Jason is as nice as could be. Gives you his expertise and experience but always defers to you for final decision. Explains things in details. Patient as can be. Always stays in touch, strikes me as the kind of guy who cares as much for the $100,000 home as he would for a $1,000,000 home. Recommend him without a seconds notice. - A. Miller

We shopped for an agent for a year and we were immediately impressed with your professionalism, knowledge and easy, honest manner. You are truly our Guardian Broker. - S. Trimarchi

It is not every day that you feel comfortable referring family, friends, and co-workers to someone. You are not only a great Realtor, but have turned into a friend. - M. Cook

Jason is a real estate expert with the experience and knowledge to guide you

We finally own our own home. Thank you Jason for all that you have done and put up with just to make our Dreams come true..we did not just find a realtor but we gained a TRUE friend in the process. We cannot Thank you enough! XoXo - L. Fraser

Your advice and suggestions were so “on the money” it was beyond amazing! Being in real estate for the past 15 years I could have handled everything myself, I sought your counsel and you came through as you always do- above and beyond” - D. Kraihanzel

Jason handled both the sale of our condo and the purchase of our new home. It was the first time my wife and I had tackled such an endeavor. It was a very stressful situation for my wife and me but Jason always told us to stay positive and that everything would work out, which it did. His experience and never ending commitment helped us close on both properties in the same week, which was remarkable based on an always unpredictable market. His experience and instincts were second to none, and we never would have been able to make it through the situation without him. Jason’s advice on both transactions was right on the money, we never had to worry about anything, and he always kept us well informed throughout the whole process. He is truly a master of his craft and I would recommend him to everyone! - B. Bechet

Jason is the agent to use if you are looking to buy or sell a house! Jason made the entire process run smoothly from start to finish. This is my first time buying a house and when I first met with Jason I started feeling over my head. However, by the end of our first meeting, he had explained the process in detail and made it easy to understand. After that, Jason took care of everything and kept me informed along the way. Whenever I called about a house, Jason knew all about it and could predict whether or not it was a good idea to look at (he was spot on). Jason took the time to get to know me and what I was looking for in a house. I have found the perfect house and I couldn’t have done it without Jason’s help. - S. Beloli

We could not have found a better match for our real estate needs than Jason Bruno. Jason is a consummate professional in his field and extremely knowledgeable in both the market and what we, as sellers, were in need of. He was integral in getting our home sold so that we could relocate back to our home town. We were SO satisfied with his skills and assistance in getting our home sold, that we continued with Jason to buy the new perfect home. Jason’s expertise and guidance allowed us to build the home of our dreams where we can settle and watch our young family grow. His attention to details and execution of tasks are outstanding! We immediately and without any hesitation boast his name whenever anyone asks us about our home selling experience and how we felt building and purchasing a new home., Our overall experience with Jason was fantastic and we will continue to whole-heartedly recommend to anyone we may know whom may be looking to buy or sell real estate. If you are looking for a pleasurable experience and would like a true professional to handle your home-selling or buying needs, Contact Jason Bruno! - M. and R. Gentili

My wife and I started working with Jason close to 2 years before we found the right house. He was always patient and professional with us. Meeting us at various properties in multiple towns and always keeping in touch. Once we found the house we wanted that is when he really showed his skill and experience. With close to 80+ at the first showing we knew it was going to be tough to get the house. With Jason's experience and some tips he had we were able to beat out other buyers. We would definitely work with him again if that day ever comes and we will most definitely refer him to someone if and when that opportunity arises. - A. Cabral

I can’t speak highly enough about Jason Bruno. I had the stressful job of selling my parent’s home after their passing. I interviewed several Realtors but knew right away that he was the right person to get me through the whole process. Jason was part businessman, teacher, therapist, sales person, technology expert and trusted advisor. He is extremely knowledgeable about the current housing market and the correct way to price to sell. I’m impressed that his ReMax Office employs various technologies to get the word out directly to buyers. Jason was so easy to reach. He always made me feel that I have perfectly reasonable questions and it was his top priority to get them answered. After selling our home in exactly the timeframe he had promised, I’m a little surprised to feel a bit of loss that I will not be working with Jason. He became like a member of the family. Would I recommend Jason Bruno? You bet! There are others out there who needn’t go through a stressful home purchase or sale. Jason will get you through it! - T. Houser

Jason will treat your sale like it was his own

Jason Bruno is the man you want by your side when it comes to real estate. My husband and I just recently had to sell our home, buy a bigger yet affordable home at the same time, AND had a property that we needed to sell (yeah...sounds like a nightmare, right?). Well, thanks to a friend's referral, we decided to work with Jason Bruno, and I am so glad we did! After THREE smooth, stress free (yes, I said stress FREE) real estate transactions with him, I feel it is my duty to spread the word about this gem of a real estate agent with anyone and everyone with buying/selling needs. To say this man is efficient is an understatement! He is the EPITOME of above and beyond! He comes into your life like a familiar friend, always a phone call or text away, and always diligently keeping you updated on what's happening and what's to come next. He has the best connections to get tasks done quickly, (The e-signing program he uses was such a gift; tons of paperwork comes with these transactions obviously, but all we ever had to do was open an email and click on the highlighted box....done!) He guided us every step of the way, always looking out for our best interest while finding the easiest way for us to walk away happy with every decision. Honestly, I felt so educated and informed yet Jason was doing all the work. He had the answers, he did the research, he had the connections, (Stefani Eaton @ RMS is amazing...so helpful and friendly), and all we ever had to do was say yes or no. The best part is he did it all with the heartfelt, genuine goal of simply wanting us to be happy and reach our goals the way WE wanted to. I'm so impressed by Jason Bruno; his work ethic and his ability to genuinely bond with his clients; it's all because of one thing....He CARES! It shows through his actions. He gets you the best, because he wants the best FOR you. Thanks to Jason we now have our forever home and a new friend for life. - L. Mallette

Yes, Yes and Yes, Jason Bruno is your Man! Can't say enough about how good he treated us. Love working with him. Everything he promised, he did! He sold my son's house about 5 years ago, and we knew then, he would be the one we would choose. We did consult with another broker but didn't seem to connect. I would recommend Jason any day! Sort of missed his calls to discuss showings. - J. and J. Costa

My husband and I had the pleasure of working with Jason in not only purchasing our first home seven years ago but again recently when we sold that home to purchase our current house. Jason's knowledge of real estate, his attention to detail, timeliness of communication both via email and over the phone, enthusiasm, and empathy for the stress experienced during the entire home buying/selling process was unparalleled. We truly felt that he always had our best interests in mind and guided us through the real estate process as well as being our cheerleader when things were emotionally overwhelming! We have two small children and being a parent himself, he understood the added challenges that parents face when uprooting their family from one home to another. He gave us the confidence that we would find our forever home that we would raise our kids in and we did! - G. Kauke

I was out of state and never sold a house before so I needed someone experienced to guide me through the process. Jason was sensitive to my stressful condition and took the lead on the entire process. He contacted all the parties (banks, appraisers, lawyers, etc) to expedite a timely smooth closing. Jason was so wonderful, I basically sat back and let him take charge. It was reassuring to know that someone was working so hard on my behalf and had my best interest at the top of his mind. I would highly recommend Jason. He was always a phone call away. His compassion for customer satisfaction is impeccable. His knowledge of the market is outstanding. If I had to do it all over again, there would be one choice Jason. - L. Brady

Jason can help you buy and sell a home

Jason is honest, reliable and ethical. Whether you are buying or selling a house Jason is the realtor you want on your side. 21 years ago Jason found the perfect house for us and assisted us in the purchase. This year as we were preparing to retire to Florida Jason assisted us in selling the same house, he is the only realtor we would consider because of his knowledge and expertise in all aspects of real estate. We met earlier in the year and discussed our strategy to prepare the house to maximize our profit. When we were ready to put it on the market Jason handled every detail to perfection he is always one step ahead of any issues that may arise. He always kept us Informed every step of the way. Jason is always available for any questions you might have . Our house sold the first week it was on the market. We attribute that to Jason's marketing skills. Jason treats every client like they were family he really cares about your wants and needs. - E & A. Arner

Jason is exactly the kind of person you want navigating you through the home selling or buying process. Recently, Jason helped me sell and buy a new home all in a short timeframe. I came from a bad experience with a Realtor and was concerned with going through this process again. Within my first meeting with Jason, any doubts I had were gone. His expertise in real estate showed throughout the entire process. I never felt pressured and Jason made sure my wife and I were educated in. - C. and T. Nolen

I have known and worked with Jason for 12 years. I bought and sold a house with Jason and I have referred him to family and friends. He is there for every question, problem, and always goes above and beyond. - B. Cataldo

My wife and I have nothing but praise for Jason. He guided us through the sale of our previous home and the purchase of our current home in a way that could only be accomplished by an expert! Jason's vast knowledge of real estate and years of experience made him equipped to answer our plethora of questions and to quickly handle any issue that arose during the sale / process. With all of Jason's experience and knowledge in the real estate arena, it is in the way that he truly cares about his clients that impressed us the most. Our experience would not have been as enjoyable without Jason at the helm and we would urge anyone in the market to sell or buy a home to take advantage of everything that Jason has to offer. - T. and S. Blake

My husband and I were looking for an investment property. Having worked with Jason in our home purchase, we knew we'd have the best Realtor working for us, and were happy to be a "repeat customer" of his. We can honestly say that without his level of dedication and professionalism, this purchase would not have gone through as it brought on all the headaches and risks of a Short Sale. Jason must've done half of the seller agent's work to make this happen. He knew what was at stake for us. Throughout the process, we witnessed a comparison between two agents in action, and you have no idea how much we appreciated having Jason on our side. Not hiring him will put you at a disadvantage, especially in this market. He kept us continuously updated, always had answers to our questions, and followed up with everything he said he'd do. While we're probably done with house hunting until we're near retirement, we will be looking forward to working with him then. - T. Grochowski

When we first began looking for homes, we interviewed Jason. We knew instantly that he was honest and sincere in how he communicated with us. He helped us to find our new home AND to sell our old home. He did both with true knowledge, professionalism and with a sense of true caring about us and what we wanted. He was also extremely efficient, timely and had amazing negotiation skills that we needed for our transactions. If you want THE realtor to get the job done, JASON BRUNO IS IT!!! - E. and M. Jerome

Jason was so much more than I expected in a Realtor. His guidance and expertise helped us sell our home for full asking price in one week time, navigate out of a purchase that turned out not to be the best fit and secure the home of our dreams the day after it was listed (beating out other Offers). Through the entire process and most likely one of the most stressful times in our lives – Jason stayed positive, kept us informed, and truly became our friend. Jason repeatedly went above and beyond for us, and was completely genuine, always doing what was in our best interest. I can't thank him enough for all the value he provided.

- B and S. Fetky

Jason recently helped me sell my home in taunton. Jason knows his real estate. He was very helpful in preparing the home and I for the sale. The home sold in 2 days. Jason is honest and gets right to business. He was always looking out for his clients best interest. - S. Simmons

Jason takes pride in his communication skills

Jason's communication skills were unsurpassed as I knew every step of the way what was happening. He explained things clearly, and with great patience and humor. His personal and professional style filled me full of confidence and comfort. I knew that he honestly had my best interest in mind. I know that I had the best in the business working for and with me, every day, every step of the way. - M. Chartier

Jason was a consummate professional that walked us through the minefield that is conducting a short sale. From listing to sale, he was communicative and always available to answer questions and provide suggestions to make the whole process as easy as it could possibly be. I would highly recommend Jason as a real estate professional whether you are buying or selling a home - D. Cady

You delivered exactly as you said you would. The communication in particular was outstanding. You proactively kept us in the loop at all times. - C. Sabolis

Jason wasn't everything we expected ... he was MORE! From the moment we met with him we knew he was the Realtor to sell our home. He has over 20 years of experience and it shows. He listened to our need, offered suggestions if we needed them and was always available via phone, text or email to answer any questions we had. He truly had our best interests at heart and went above and beyond to sell our home. Within a week of putting it on the market we had three Offers on the table ...one over asking price. He made the entire process seem easy. I, without hesitation highly recommend Jason. You will not be disappointed! - D. and S. Mendes

You excelled at communication and letting me know exactly what was happening during our sale. Thanks for your professionalism and kindness. - M. Greaves

You explained things in a way we could understand and when we had questions, you had answers. When you said you would call, you called. When we set an appointment, you were punctual. - L. Plamondon

I would like to take a moment to write this letter to thank you personally for all your help selling my property. As you know I moved to Florida in the middle of selling and your team proved to be very helpful through every step of the process. Everyone has his or her job and they did very well. The communication between everyone was superb and we all know that what can happen when one link in the chain is broken. Your wonderful team approach worked smoothly from one step to the other. Florida has been a big enough event in my life, but having you in control of selling my property took a lot of pressure off my everyday routine of trying to adjust to my move. Once again I want to thank you for all your help during the transition in my life and please feel free to use me as a reference. - M. Cerce

Jason stays on top of the transaction until the property is sold. He is incredibly responsive and experienced. Simply a pleasure to work with. I would not hesitate to recommend Jason. - V. Courtney

Jason is not pushy and will never rush you into a decision

Jason was never pushy or tried to pressure us into something we did not want. He took the time to explain everything to us before we did or signed anything. Our dream of owning our first home has come true. R Perry

You were very patient and understanding when we explained our "situation" and you had expert knowledge. You did not put any pressure on us. You were always available when we had questions. - M. Barry

Jason is wonderful. I started my journey with Jason about 3 yrs ago. I was not quite ready when I began, but Jason stuck by me for 3 yrs. When it was time to start the process, Jason was there and ready to help. I am a single Mom and was not always sure of what to ask or even look for when purchasing a new home. He is always there for you even for the simplest question. He always takes the time to explain, teach, and he is very patient. He is professional, honest, and he really does care. He does not look to make a sale, I truly feel, he is looking to find you your HOME. I would recommend Jason to anyone and I do! You will be in GREAT hands. - J. Colaninno

I must say up front that I am not one to write reviews, but I feel compelled to share our unbelievable experience with Jason. Jason is beyond amazing – he made both selling and buying in a really tough market virtually stress – free, as he was with us every single step of the way, always available and offering the perfect balance of sound advice when we needed it and supportive silence when we didn't (when so many other Realtors would have not hesitated to pressure us, Jason wouldn't have dreamed of it, as his actions showed us time and again that our satisfaction was his highest priority). He also seemed to have some sort of real estate ESP, as he predicted EXACTLY what would happen before it did, which meant that we were always one step ahead and gave us a great edge throughout the buying and selling processes. Others were shocked that we had a signed Offer on the home we were selling within 3 weeks at a time when other homes were sitting on the market for months, but not Jason! He then helped us to find the home of our dreams right away, negotiated a great price, and worked tirelessly with our sellers and buyers to arrange for both closings to occur on the same day. As if all that was not enough, he even helped out on moving day! The pleasure of working with Jason almost makes us want to move again Except that he already found us the perfect home! - S and J. Wallace

Jason was wonderful broker for both the sale of my home and the purchase of a new one. He was never rushed and always made time to answer any questions I had. I hired Jason to help me sell my home and because we worked so well together I brought him in on my purchase too. His insight and advice were invaluable. He kept me calm during the whole process, which can be very nerve-racking. He helped coordinate both my closings so that everything went smoothly and worked to get me the best deal in both circumstances. I am a real estate paralegal and should know all the ins and outs of real estate, but it is totally different when you are the one involved. If you are looking for experienced and helpful advice, I would recommend Jason to anyone interested in either buying or selling a home. He will help make the process as smooth as possible. - B. Mason

Jason was a pleasure to work with. He was highly professional at all times. It has been over 20 years since I had worked with a Realtor. I found Jason to be very knowledgeable as well as patient and honest. His knowledge of the area helped in the timely selling of my home. - D. Muratore

Home sellers choose Jason

I have had Jason Bruno list and sell two of my homes. I was very impressed with his knowledge of the R.E. market and determining the proper pricing of my homes. His advice was always spot on and he was quick to respond to all my questions. I appreciated his honesty, integrity and attention to detail. Jason made the selling process proceed smoothly and prevented any surprises. I valued his expertise to such an extent that I advised my daughter to choose Jason to handle the selling of her home. She did and was very pleased with Jason's abilities and results. I would absolutely recommend Jason Bruno to everyone. - D. Nunes

I've had a number of real estate dealings in my 52 years and this was one of the best undertakings I have experienced. You listened to me as a customer, responded intuitively and made things happen. I always felt you were acting in my best interest. You are trustworthy and that is a pretty valuable commodity in a salesperson. - K. Borges

him as your Realtor, you won't be sorry. I sold my house for top dollar in current market. - M. Lambert
Jason handled the selling of our home with the utmost of professionalism. He kept us in constant communication throughout the entire process from start to finish. After meeting with him for the 1st time you will realize just how much experience and knowledge that he brings to the real estate profession. Jason not only provides valuable input but also values his clients input and always involves them in any decision making. - D. and L. Currie

As we complete our journey together, I wanted to thank you for making what can be a very stressful process, one that is provided us with a sense of being active and fully prepared participants. It is human nature to fear the unknown and you helped minimize this by keeping us up-to-date at all times. This is the fifth house we sold and everyone has been a unique adventure. Each case I want to receive a price that I felt was fair and acceptable and I wanted to be sure that the transition from one house to the other is as smooth as possible. Along the way other priorities may surface. In this case, we are fully satisfied that we have received a fair price for our house and that you help us achieve the amount of time we needed to have the construction completed on our next home. Of all the moves we have made, this one was our best and I thank you and your team for the tremendous support we received. As you recall, I consider trying to sell the house myself. After our meeting and a week reflecting on our discussion, I realized you offer so much more that I could do by myself. You have the knowledge of the real estate business, the knowledge of local market, a process that looks more like a major corporation and a technological approach that is unique to my experience and serviced us very well. Ultimately, the process and technology is only as good as the people you are working with. Our personal interactions were the highest quality. I relied heavily on your advice, but often our discussions produced a course of action that included some of my thoughts and much of yours. Being part of the process helps to reduce the stress that may surface when you selling your house. It certainly did in this case. As you know, I have already referred you to my next-door neighbor and you have already found a buyer for their house too. They have been extremely happy with your services as well. I wish you and your team the best. - J. and D. Keating

I can't say enough good things. I was out of state and you handled everything. What service! You definitely went above and beyond. - T. Costa

Jason is such an amazing person to work with. He is a family man that did his best to understand our needs and what we wanted to accomplish. He did everything in his power to make sure we knew what we were getting into. He listened, followed up and always gave feedback. He answered emails and phone calls even when on vacation. He gave us a very specific plan and he reason behind his strategy but was always adjusted after our input. Selling our house was difficult and emotional but we are so glad we had Jason on our side to guide and make this transition as smooth as possible. - S. and D. Glemaud

Jason was an excellent broker in selling both my homes. On the first home, he used extensive print advertising. On the second home he used the internet as mostly buyers go online now. The house sold at a value consistent with current pricing and necessary deal structure. He is easy to work with and will adjust based on your requests. He has a zeal for the business and learned from his Mom. – R. Carlson

When we made the decision to sell our home, it was a sudden decision. And we wanted to act quickly. Not only did we want to move, but we wanted to catch the right wave in the market. There is so much to consider in home sales and we needed an expert who could make the right decisions, do all the work, and take some of the stress away. We wanted someone we could text or call when we had a dumb question. We took notice of what was moving in our area, how fast things were moving, and who was moving them. It seemed pretty simple to us, Jason Bruno was the answer. From the day we first met with Jason in our home, it was clear to us that we had made the right choice. Jason had complete knowledge of what was moving in the market right then, explained in simple terms how the process would work, and a rough timeline of how quick we had to pack. He was as aggressive and excited about the sale as we were. After a walk through of our home, Jason said "this is what I need you to do. "Everything else, leave it to me. If you have a question, call me, text me, day or night, I don't care". That was exactly what I wanted to hear. We listed on a Thursday, had first showing on Saturday, and our home was gone in 2 hours at over asking price. Jason had very carefully calculated our home in the market.

When he called us to tell us we had to finish packing quickly, it confirmed to us Jason had the right skills and we had picked the right realtor for this crazy ride! - G. Kiff

Jason called to let us know what was going on with the buyers regularly. Keep in contact with buyers. I would hire Jason again for further real estate transactions. - B. Lafleur

Dear Jason, thanks again for helping us sell our condo in Rolling Pines in South Easton. Your team delivered exactly as you said they would and we are extremely satisfied with both the price and the process. As corny as it sounds, we are compelled to admit we often felt that you and your team were working for just us. The communications in particular were outstanding. Please use us as a reference. - C. and S. Sabolis

Jason will treat you like a close friend or family member

From the beginning Jason treated us as friends instead of clients. Moving up from Texas posed a daunting task that Jason made quite seamless. On our first visit up he showed us multiple houses in multiple towns to give us a better understanding of where we wanted to be...knowing it would be months before we were even thinking about buying. When we found the house we wanted he helped make sure that we walked away with it...not a small task in an uber competitive market. And through the whole process he went to bat for us to make sure that the house was what we thought it was in the first place...our new home. Can't say enough good things about Jason. It was a great experience and we now have a new friend out of the deal as well. Win, win. - T. Watlington

We are first time homebuyers and had no any idea where to start. Jason guided us all the way from start to closing. He is a very likeable person. We trusted him right on the day we met him that he is going to help us get the best house at our money's worth and we were not wrong. Jason is an expert. Because of his 20+ years of experience in real estate, he has these strategies he used to get to the closing date in less than a month! Jason is very hardworking and dedicated to his job. He worked late into the evening negotiating the sale and helped us beat out 4 other buyers who made offers. He also got the owners leave the new washer, dryer, and refrigerator which saved us thousands. Jason truly cared for us like old friends. He made sure that we get the house we wanted to make it a home. He helped us in many ways even beyond his expertise. We are now very happy homeowners without regrets! Not only we got a lovely house but also gained a friend. :) - C. Evonne

It's been two months of happily living in what we'd like to call our "forever home!" Just now we are finding the time to write our two time realtor, Jason Bruno a well deserved review! We had the pleasure of meeting Jason almost 10 years ago as first home buyers. Like most first home buyers, we didn't have a clue as to what we were getting ourselves into. Jason was patient with us as we wheened out the many homes we had interest in looking at. Our work schedules were conflicting at times, but once again, he always found a way to work with us. We put all of our trust with Jason in finding us the right starter home that eventually lead us to one where we raised 3 children and a dog and so many wonderful memories! Through social media we remained connected with Jason because he was now a friend! Upon expecting our third child we came to the realization that we had maxed out the space in our first home. Without any hesitation, we called Jason. Chapter 2 begins there...life was even crazier than before! Our third child had arrived, and we were ready to make moves! Jason guided us with his expertise on how to get our first home ready to sell all while looking for our forever one. He was patient once again. We spoke all hours of the day or night...while life went on in the background. When things seemed overwhelming, he'd ask us to trust him...and reassured us that it would all fall into place. He became a familiar person to our children. They knew that it was HIM that was going to help us find us our next home and there was lots of excitement. The house found US with the help, support, professionalism and friendship of Jason Bruno. We genuinely felt Jason's excitement for us when we bought our home- just like a friend or family member would demonstrate. We highly recommend "cousin Jason" as your realtor! Thank you Jason! - M. & J. Vergne

About a year ago, my wife and I were looking for a new home to accommodate our growing family. My wife chose Jason based on reading positive review on real estate websites. I can say, with certainty, that the positive reviews were accurate. Jason was professional, honest, straightforward and personable and after a short while I felt like he was a part of our little family. He has a keen understanding of the market and after meeting with us had just as keen understanding of our wants and needs and how that aligned with the market. We eventually settled on new construction. The process of building a new home was stressful, but Jason was incredibly helpful in walking us through the steps of the process and being candid in preparing us for the inevitable delays that come with working with a builder. The lines of communication were always open and he was the perfect liaison between the seller's agent, the lawyer and the mortgage company. I would absolutely do business with Jason again, however I do hope to be in my house for quite some time. So he will have to settle for me recommending his services to friends and family. Thanks Jason. - D. and D. Matheus

Jason provided us with excellent service from start to finish. He went above and beyond to make sure we got the house we wanted at a fair price. Jason knows the real estate business inside and out and does everything he can to provide his clients with stellar service. Jason is genuinely more concerned with making sure his clients are happy with their home buying experience than he is with making money. I would not hesitate to recommend Jason Bruno to my family and friends, in fact I have done so several times over the years. Jason is a rare find in the real estate market, what started out as a business relationship has blossomed into a lifelong friendship. - T. McCarthy

Upon meeting Jason for the first time, it was clear we were dealing with someone who was not only professional, but personable. It was evident from start to finish that he is a man of great integrity, sincerity, and skill in his field. His state of the art marketing strategy gave our home the exposure it needed, and his consistent communications with us kept us on top of things at all times. It was a pleasure to deal with him, and we consider him a friend now as well as our agent. We can easily recommend Jason with great confidence! - J. Pundt

I would recommend Jason to others for the same reason we hired him. Jason is personable, honest, hardworking and thorough. We also liked the fact that he was effective and persistent without being aggressive. He always followed through when promised. His customer service skills are extraordinary. Jason will always let you know where each phase of the sale stands. You will always know his schedule and the best way to reach him at all times. Don't under-estimate Jason's experience because of his age. He is well versed in the real estate laws and protecting the interest of his clients. He was very thorough in reviewing the legal documents between us and the buyers, always advising us along the way. The buyers who purchased our property had a very difficult attorney who challenged our patience beyond belief. Yet, Jason was always one step ahead strategically planning out options and providing us with guidance on how to handle each situation – always with a professional demeanor. Jason treated us as if we were a close family member or friend – even though he only knew us for a short period of time. He took the time to comfort us when we felt we couldn't handle one more challenge with the sale of our property. Jason was always optimistic and reminded us how much we had accomplished in such a short period of time and that our long-time dream was just around the corner. We couldn't have made it through this entire process without Jason's caring about our well-being. We know that you will find the same in Jason because that's who Jason is and will always be. He has a passion for his work and helping others and does so with the highest of ethics. - B. and J. Kelly

Jason is your best choice as your next Realtor

Jason did a great job helping us purchase our home in 2009, and when it came time to sell, we knew who to call! He really has a very good understanding of the real estate market. He helped us figure out the best price to list our home and guided us in some improvements that really drew people in for the open house. We had an offer that day! While the septic inspection failing was quite disheartening, Jason pointed us in the right direction for repairs and also got involved in communication with all parties throughout the repair process. It was an unexpected stress factor, but thanks to Jason everything worked out perfectly. We couldn't be happier with his efforts. - T. Laura

I knew we hired the right Realtor from our first meeting. - N. Gavazzi

We met with another agent, but after our initial meeting with Jason, we decided to choose him before he even made it into his car. He made things easy for us to understand. Even when things were tense and chaotic he was there to calm the storm. - K. DiGiovanni

My wife and I were looking to sell our home. We needed someone that could do it quickly and efficiently. A friend from work recommended Jason Bruno from ReMax real estate. I gave him a call and we talked for a while, got to know each other a little. I'm pretty much of a skeptic so I didn't trust him right away. We made an appointment, and on the day, he showed up, ON TIME! We talked some more and he laid out a plan for the sale of our house. Some things we liked some we didn't. He's very good at his job. Made suggestions and asked whether we agreed or not. Together we agreed on a plan and he went to work. By this time I figured he would do a good job. We put our trust in him. Besides a few problems with buyers, our home sold in three months. We have Jason to thank for making our goals come true. Thank you Jason, keep up the good work. The many years of experience payed off for you and us. - N. Gonsalves

When we decided to sell our house in this tough economy we knew no Realtors or Agencies. We picked Jason out of the phone book. After calling him, he immediately came to our home and helped us work out a plan. He stuck with us for a long 14 months and got us a deal that amazed us in the end. During this time, Jason became more than a Realtor, he became our friend. Jason makes himself available, returns all calls and emails. He stuck with us through all the problems and handled every detail. Jason is a pleasure to work with and a very knowledgeable source of information. He was honest, truthful, optimistic and reliable to the very end. - B. and G. Blanchard

We have used you twice and we would never do business with any one else. - K. Bjorkman

My siblings and I sold our family home with Jason's expertise. Home is quite old, in need of repair inside and out. All of us are out- of -state. With one visit to meet Jason, show him the property and get it ready for sale it was a trying time. I have to say Jason smoothed the way for us with his knowledge of area and market value of homes, financing needed to make a successful sale. He kept me in touch with all transactions and encountered problems. The house is Sold and I will miss our weekly phone calls and strategy planning! Thank-you Jason! - C. Crook

I hired Jason Bruno to assist me in finding the perfect home for my family. He went above and beyond what I would expect a Realtor to do. When we went to properties that we were unfamiliar with the neighborhood he gave us advice and guided us through the process including meeting the neighbors and what questions we should ask the neighbors. When we found the perfect home, he advised us to get a home inspection which we are extremely grateful for, because even though it was a new build the home had mold in the attic. Jason went above and beyond, he went into the attic with the inspector to view the mold and he went back after the mold remediation to verify with the inspector that the issues were resolved,. He walked us through the entire process and asked questions that a first time home buyer would not know to ask. Jason is kind, personable, and extremely trustworthy. He showed us a variety of homes k was always punctual for every appointment, and answered the phone every time I called. Jason is truly wonderful! - D. Sunderland

When I decided to sell my home, I knew that I would need someone who was trustworthy and had the professionalism to get the job done! Jason more than fit the bill From the first time that we met, I knew that I had made the right choice. It was a long road, but Jason went more than the extra mile in selling my home. He kept me informed on the housing market and what was best to do to sell my home. If you want someone that doesn't give up and works tirelessly, then Jason is your man - J. Larivee

Jason has sold two homes for me. He is truly an outstanding agent! His experience is paramount as he takes the time up front and hits the mark without having to do price reductions. He sold my first home back in 1998 for full asking price in 1 week! My second home was sold in 2005. I made the mistake of giving a family member new to the industry the listing. Needless to say it was on the market for 6 months without an Offer. I spoke to Jason and he had my house sold in 2 weeks! He has also represented me as a buyer on 2 homes and was instrumental in negotiating the best deal for me and protecting my future. I would not trust anyone else with the most important purchase that you can ever make in your life! I refer him to all of my family and friends, he truly is a Realtor for Life! - M. and N. Faria

It has been an honor and pleasure working with you Jason. Your strength and honesty are superior. - S. Kerry

Jason handled the sale of our house in Taunton. Three things I valued in the process are 1) He knew the market, current with the daily changes of pricing and competition. 2) He knows the people and the process to get a deal and get the Sale. 3) He is tenacious and communicates, always on top of the details and keeping the other parties in the deal moving forward. I would use Jason if I were in the market to buy or sell a property; he's top notch professional and a performer! Results count and he got results! - J. and D. Coyne

Thank you for making it so easy to sell my house. As you know, I left the state just as the whole process began, so I never saw the sign go up. I felt confident however, that I would not have to be there in person for everything to go smoothly, and I was right! You kept me informed at all times and handled all the negotiations so that I did not have an instant of worry. My son chose you for his agent so it was easy for me to know which real estate company to choose. I wish you and your staff the best of success as well as personal peace of mind and contentment. - S. Richardson

Just a note to tell you how much I appreciate the work you did for my mother and I. We felt comfortable and confident knowing that you were working to sell the house. Every step of the process was handled professionally and sensitively to our needs. - P. Smith

I have been working with Jason Bruno now for several months in the process of finding a house to meet my needs. Jason has been very patient with my demands and willing to work with me. He has always kept me informed and was always there to guide me through the process. We looked at several houses and helped me look at my needs to see how well the house filled them. No house is perfect, but Jason made sure I saw the positive aspects of each house and how I could work around those "needs" that couldn't be realized. Thank you Jason. - M. Duarte

Jason also helps first time home buyers

As first time home buyers, we had so many questions and nerves going into this process and wanted to be sure we found a realtor who was going to work for us. Jason came as a recommendation from a coworker and let me tell you, he SURPASSED what we could have wanted in a realtor. From our first meeting to the day we got the keys to our first home, Jason made us feel like we were his only clients - taking the time to understand what we wanted and answering any questions/concerns we had. With his multiple years of experience, Jason worked quickly to write up our offer and knew exactly what to look for when it came time to negotiate and write up paperwork - at one point saving us an additional expense because of his attention to detail. We had a couple of instances where the seller's agent would try to pull a fast one on us, but again, with Jason's experience, he quickly and very professionally took care of any possible issues at all hours of the day and night to make sure we got what we wanted and more. He got us into our first home 30 days after our offer got accepted with the help of Stefani Eaton at RMS (who we also highly recommend). Jason signs his emails "your friend in real estate" and honestly, that is what he felt like to us - a friend giving recommendations and guidance each step of the way, never making us feel pressured to make a decision, but simply making sure we knew all the facts. This is THE REALTOR you want to help you buy or sell your home - we couldn't be more appreciative of Jason! - J. Laudati

This was my first time experience buying a home and I was extremely nervous going into it. I didn't know very much about the whole buying process, but Jason took the time to walk me through it (at my own pace) and explained every detail of it. It was very clear by how knowledgeable he was that he is an expert in his field. Jason answered all of my questions no matter how many I had or how many times I asked them. If I found a house I wanted to look at, Jason did his very best to get me in to see it ASAP, very often the same day when possible. No matter what was going on in his day, I always felt like I was his number one priority and his ONLY client. It soon became clear that my finding a perfect home was as important to him as it was to me, no matter how long it took! Jason is my first Realtor and will be my ONLY Realtor in the future. I recommend him to everyone I know! - A. Jamrin

As first time homebuyers with not a clue to how the real estate world works Jason was the perfect pair for us. From the very beginning he took his time to explain each and every step as it came. He was always right on top of things and an easy phone call away no matter the time of day. When it comes to real estate he is it! Jason was always honest with us and acted in our best interest as if we were family. He is committed to his clients and truly cares for them. We had a lengthy process of buying our new home and Jason kept us on track even when we became frustrated or were having our doubts. We could not be any more happier in our new home and that's all thanks to Jason's expertise in real estate, he is your guy for sure! I can say 100% he is the BEST!

- A. and J. Cataldo

Jason should add Therapist to his list of qualifications. We were first time home buyers and had no idea what we were getting into. Since Jason was recommended to me by my sister, we knew we could trust him to help us with one of the biggest decisions of our life. But as with all first timers we tried to overlook things we would probably later regret and Jason gently guided us away from that line of thought. He was genuinely trying to look out for my family. To say that he is a hard worker is a complete understatement. He negotiated our Offer all while he experienced a loss in his family. We had no idea until after all was said and done and Jason never missed a beat. His proactive communications made the process easier than I expected. We always knew what was next. We are truly grateful for his knowledge and guidance. - W. and J. Negron

A few months ago, my boyfriend and I decided to buy our first home. We truly were first-timers and were new to the entire process. Jason was so informative along the way about all the processes and took the time to make sure we had no questions that were unanswered. I would highly recommend him to any first time home-buyers simply because he always keeps you informed and updated. The house we chose was a short sale and he stuck with us through the entire process, updating even when there was no news. He truly made the home buying experience a positive one for the two of us and we could absolutely use him in the future! - K. Maynard.

As first-time homebuyer, I had no idea what I was doing. Jason was always ready to answer any question I had. There was never any pressure or rushing to find a house, even for the months when there were no good options on the market. When the time came that we had found a house, Jason made sure everything was explained thoroughly, and that everything went smoothly. With Jason, I found an amazing house, for a great price, with little if any complications or stress. I would 100% recommend Jason to anybody looking to buy a house. - A. Simmons

This was my first real estate experience so I needed extra help. You were always there for me and knew just what to do. You were enthusiastic and always kind and made me feel comfortable even when I was nervous. You went above and beyond. - J. Smith

People like to recommend Jason

Jason was recommended through my niece and he delivered. He found the home of my dreams... the town I wanted and the area everything! He works 24/7 for you. Being an impatient buyer like I was, Jason was honest and wanted me to be patient. He knew he could find me the right home for my price range. Jason is top notch when it comes to finding the right home that you will love.

Highly recommended. - M. Britton

Facing the sale of my parents homestead, I was expecting the worst. Instead Jason's professionalism provided my family with excellent advice and insight while being patient and calming. He was always respectful of my extremely tight schedule, always taking the extra step knowing what was needed for a smooth sale. He was always available for questions, and I had many. His response was quick, not only to me but also the two other family members involved, trying and succeeding in making sure there were no surprises. Jason's honesty, service, integrity, along with his knowledge of the local market are exceptional. We could not have been happier for choosing him as our Realtor. I highly recommend him as an effective Realtor. - N. and B. Januse

We are writing this Review to let others know of the professionalism & job knowledge we experienced with Jason Bruno. We unfortunately were dealing with selling a property as part of an estate settlement. Jason was truly our business partner who skillfully guided us thru the sale. As with any process, we experienced our ups and downs. We found with Jason, that no problem was beyond his experience & capability. He reached beyond our expectation to assist in getting expedient resolutions. Enough to say our problems became his and he seized the opportunity to bring solution which always had our best interest in mind. Without reservation, we would highly recommend him. - G. and J. Caras

My wife and I are so thankful that Jason was referred to us by a good friend. From the very first encounter, we both got a real feeling of honesty, integrity, and knowledge that convinced us that Jason was going to handle one of the largest endeavors of our lives, the selling of our home. Throughout this process he continually kept us up-to-date with his "Market Snapshots", so that we were informed as to what houses were for sale in our neighborhood and what the housing market was fairing. He stayed on top of all the different complexities that were encountered and never had us waiting or wondering about these major or minor decisions. If we were ever to sell our new home or want to buy another place in the future, Jason Bruno would be first on my list of Realtors, hands-down. I look forward to being able to promote his name whenever the occasion would arise. In summarizing, we just want to say "thank you, Jason, for all that you do and for the man that you are". – L. Gersin

We are the second in our family to have Jason Bruno as our real estate agent. Our son recommended him, and we could not be more pleased. We felt that his expertise helped us to sell the house quickly AND we sold for more than the asking price! What a surprise that after just a few days on the market we had received 5 viable Offers. Thanks Jason! - G. and J. Lynch

Jason, you are excellent in our opinion. We always tell everyone about you and that you are the only one they should do business with. - G. and B. Costa

When I needed to sell my father's house, I asked a friend for advice and he met with several real estate agents and recommended Jason Bruno. This house was the third house that I was involved in selling before calling Jason so I did my own research on the market conditions for the area and Jason gave me the same figures. He explained what he would do to sell the house and advised me to do some minor touchups on the grounds. After two days on the market there were three offers for my house. I expected one and patted papers five weeks later. So if you want to sell your house call Jason because you get action and your house sold. Thank you very much. - D. McKiel

Jason Bruno is one of the smartest Realtors I know. He is the type of Realtor that will go the extra mile (or miles I should say) when you need him the most. Speaking from personal experience, I sold my condo and bought a townhouse in the winter months last year. I couldn't believe how fast I had an Offer on the table!!! Why you may ask? Jason knows what he's doing. From listing the property for sale, to knowing the land that it sits on, to understanding where I want to buy for the future. He knew everything from back to front. He knew what my price range was, he knew what area I wanted to move into. I have never met any Realtor that works as hard as he does, The handshake makes the deal complete after closing, but it's his hard work throughout the process to make you the happiest buyer or seller. I highly recommend Jason Bruno to everyone. He is the friendliest person and he's happy when you are happy. He follows up with you after you moved and unpacked to make sure you enjoy your new home. He's top notch in my book! - N. Bechet

Thank you very much for the job you did getting our family's house sold. It was a tough house and a lot going against us but you did it. I greatly appreciate it. If you ever need a reference feel free to give them my name and number. - A. Quigly

Jason recently helped us with the sale of a house that was left to us upon the passing of my Father in Law. We were totally inexperienced with this sort of transaction. From our very first meeting and throughout the entire process, Jason displayed professionalism, integrity and sensitivity to our needs at a difficult time. We consider ourselves very fortunate to have found such a wonderful real estate professional, and I highly recommend him. - J. and K. Kruczek

As two seniors living in an over 55 community, we had contracted to have a home built in a new over 55 community. We needed to sell our home within 3 months. Our son strongly recommended Jason Bruno who had both sold his home and found a new home for him and his family. We called Jason who immediately responded and met with us. He listened to our needs and concerns, answered all our questions and told us that he would send us comparables to help us establish a selling price. He did that with the note that he would recheck them in a couple of weeks. That he did and new sales reflected increased prices. He again came to our home to discuss the next steps; to establish the selling price and the date to put it on the market. We signed a contract with him. He had pictures taken and called us to review the listing, and pictures with appropriate descriptions. He asked us to check all the information for accuracy (he had made no mistakes). He came to put the For Sale sign on our home and answered all our questions. He posted our listing on the MLS site. Within 48 hours our house was sold, for full asking price to buyers without contingencies, passing at a time agreeable to us. Jason handled all negotiations. The passing went very smoothly, thanks to Jason's having all the paperwork in order. In short, Jason is a skilled professional Realtor who knows the processes and handles communications with great ease and expertise. Knowledgeable, hard-working, honest and personable, Jason is "the best" and we highly recommend him - W. and H. Cox

Please know that when the opportunity presents itself I will recommend you as a real estate agent. You did NOT "drop me like a hot potato" post closing. The reality is that you've helped me several times with house related issues/questions that have come up over the past several months and I'm grateful you've continued to be so in a patient, respectful, and timely manner. - S. Herwald

I am grateful for my clients business, trust, and friendships it's a big reason I love what I do..
The purpose of my business is to make you so happy with my help that you'll gladly introduce me to the people you care about who want to buy or sell a property. - Jason Bruno
